About Hong Kong

Set against the sparkling skyline of Victoria Harbour, Hong Kong stands as a symbol of resilience, progress and cultural harmony. Widely known as “Asia’s World City,” it blends Eastern tradition with Western innovation in a way no other destination can.

With world-class infrastructure, high-speed connectivity and exceptional hospitality, Hong Kong has become a preferred hub for international conferences and global collaborations. Beyond being a business powerhouse, it is a city of inspiration, where ancient temples sit beside futuristic skyscrapers, and street-side tea stalls coexist with Michelin-starred restaurants.

For conference delegates, Hong Kong is not just a location, it’s an unforgettable journey. Days may be filled with learning, networking and meaningful dialogue but evenings offer scenic waterfront walks, cultural explorations and culinary adventures across vibrant night markets.

Whether you seek professional growth or personal discovery, Hong Kong makes every moment meaningful.

Interesting Facts about Hong Kong:

Hong Kong is a city of striking contrasts, where ancient temples coexist with glittering skyscrapers, and centuries-old traditions blend seamlessly with modern innovation. It holds the world record for the most skyscrapers, yet over 40% of its land is covered in parks and nature reserves, offering breathtaking trails like the famous Dragon’s Back for a peaceful escape from the urban buzz.

The city is also a culinary paradise, home to over 70 Michelin-starred restaurants and even the world’s cheapest Michelin-starred dim sum, Tim Ho Wan. From bustling street markets to serene waterfronts, Hong Kong offers an unforgettable experience for every traveler. Its efficient public transport system ensures that exploring the city whether for business or leisure is seamless and convenient.

Beyond its urban marvels, Hong Kong is made up of more than 200 islands and even hosts a population of wild pink dolphins in its surrounding waters. With its unique blend of culture, innovation, and natural beauty, Hong Kong is not just a destination—it’s a source of inspiration and a perfect hub for global conferences like World Nursing Talk 2026.
